ECONOMIC IMMIGRATION – PROGRAMS

Interested in hiring foreign workers temporarily in Canada?

Labour Market Impact Assessment (LMIA)-based work permit:

Learn about the work permit application process when you hire workers through the Temporary Foreign Worker Program with a Labour Market Impact Assessment.

International Mobility Program:

You can hire a temporary foreign worker without a Labour Market Impact Assessment through the International Mobility Program. You must register a profile in the IRCC's employer portal, submit an online offer of employment and pay a compliance of CAD$230 per worker. Some options:

International Experience Canada

The perfect option for overseas candidates from eligible countries between the ages of 18-35 who are looking to work in various positions!

Free Trade Agreements

Free Trade Agreements – Save time and costs by leveraging the power of trade agreements between Canada and a wide range of countries worldwide: USA & Mexico (CUSMA), Europe (CETA), Australia, Japan & Mexico (CPTPP), Chile, Peru, Colombia and more!

Francophone Mobility

The Francophone Mobility Program is an initiative that issues work permits to French-speaking foreign nationals who will live and work in a Francophone community outside of Quebec!

Interested in retaining your current foreign national employee?

Support their Canadian Permanent path
